

The Commission on the Elimination of Poverty Public Hearing

Make Your Voice Heard!

The Illinois Commission on the Elimination of Poverty is in the process of developing a Poverty Elimination Strategy to cut the number of people living in extreme poverty in half by 2015 in a manner consistent with international human rights standards.

The commission is seeking input from Illinois residents regarding their thoughts on what our state should do to reach the 2015 goal. Your input is critical to ensuring the strategy reflects the needs of those experiencing hardship in our state.
